COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT POLICY ON GIFTS

1. This document sets out the policy of the Fund applicable to each Trustee and the Principal Officer in respect of any gift received by or offered to him or her by virtue of holding his or her office as Trustee. For the purpose of this document "gift" means any property of whatsoever nature and any benefit, direct or indirect, which has a financial value, but does not include agreed remuneration for services to the Fund. A gift may include but is not limited to –

- A movable item, such as a book or bottle of wine;
- The payment of the costs, including travelling costs, to attend a conference, whether or not convened by a service provider to the Fund;
- An invitation to attend any sporting, social or recreational event.

For the purposes of this policy, the payment by a service provider, of the costs, including travelling and subsistence costs, of any member of the Committee of Management to attend a conference or seminar related in any way to the retirement fund industry does not constitute a gift.

2. The purpose of this policy is to determine appropriate conduct in relation to any gift offered to or received by any member of the Committee of Management or the Principal Officer. In this way the governance of the Fund is intended to be demonstrated as one of integrity, independence and accountability.
3. Any member of the Committee of Management or the Principal who is offered a gift must notify in writing that offer to the Committee of Management before acceptance. A gift may only be accepted by a member of the Committee of Management if so decided by the Committee of Management by resolution. Only thereafter may the gift be accepted by the member or the Principal Officer.
4. The Committee of Management may from time to time determine that any gift below a certain monetary amount need not require a resolution of the Committee of Management in order to be accepted. Any gift less than this amount must, nevertheless, be disclosed to the Committee of Management at its first meeting after its receipt. It is recorded that at the date of approval by the Committee of Management of this policy it was determined that any gift below R1000,00 (one thousand hundred rand) does not require a resolution of the Committee of Management in order to be accepted.

5. Non-compliance with this policy by a member of the Committee of Management or the Principal Officer will constitute a breach of his or her duties to the Fund and renders that member liable to such sanction as the Committee of Management may consider appropriate.
6. A gift register will be maintained by the Funds.
