KwaZulu-Natal Joint Municipal
Pension/Provident Funds

12/01/2026

Dear Member / Pensioner,

The KwaZulu-Natal Joint Municipal Pension / Provident Fund (NJMPF) is pleased to invite you to attend the Annual Information Meeting (AIM) scheduled for 27 March 2026.

The Annual Information Meeting serves as a vital platform for direct engagement with members and pensioners, offering transparent updates on the management, performance, and strategic direction of your retirement savings. This session is an important part of our commitment to accountability, good governance, and ensuring that you remain well-informed about your benefits.

During the meeting, attendees will receive key insights on:

- The overall performance of the Funds and how members' and pensioners' retirement savings are managed and invested.
- The Fund's financial position, sustainability, and long-term outlook.
- Presentations from the Fund's Actuary, Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, and Executive Management.
- Governance, regulatory, and operational developments that may affect benefits.
- An opportunity to engage directly with the Fund through questions and discussion.

We strongly encourage your participation, as it provides an opportunity to stay informed, seek clarity, and deepen your understanding of how the Fund continues to work in your best interest.
